Old MacDonald Had a Woodshop

1. What kind of animal is Old MacDonald?
   - pig
   - sheep
   - goat
   - cat

2. What is the setting of the story?
   - ocean
   - zoo
   - farm
   - forest

3. What did goat use to put the nails into the wood?
   - paintbrush
   - chisel
   - screwdriver
   - hammer

4. Which animal is not a character in the story?
   - dog
   - horse
   - cow
   - chicken

The animals on the farm like to eat apples from the trees and corn from the garden for lunch every day. During the winter, the farmer brings them bread and milk to eat. That’s what they eat every day until the apples and corn grow again in the spring.

1. What do the animals eat for lunch in the summer?
   - bugs and fish
   - apples and corn
   - carrots and beans
   - cookies and water

2. Why isn’t there food in the winter?
   A bear comes and eats all the apples and corn.
   The farmer closes down the garden.
   During the winter, the trees do not have fruit and plants don’t grow.
   The animals hibernate during the winter.