

H.E.R.O.

Here Everyday, Ready and On-time

We know that chronic absenteeism can have a drastic impact on children's education. Data shows that children chronically absent in kindergarten and first grade are much less likely to learn to read by the end of third grade. By sixth grade, chronic absence is a proven early warning sign of drop-out. By ninth grade, good attendance can predict graduation even better than eighth-grade test scores.

Here at Downtown Elementary we are fighting back by being Here, Everyday, Ready to learn and On-time!! We are attendance Super HEROES!!

For a student to be a H.E.R.O you must be at school everyday, no late check-ins and no early checkouts and be ready to learn for an entire week. Each week that a student qualifies, they may dress out of uniform the following Monday. They will know that they qualify because the teacher will give them a pass on Friday afternoon.

Out of uniform dress still must be appropriate for school no inappropriate slogans, spaghetti straps, short skirts/dresses/shorts or high heels.

Can you be an attendance H.E.R.O?
